If an applicant needs to complete this form, when and where must it be submitted?

Applicants have until 11:59 p.m. Central Time on the fifth business day after the day the Department posts the lottery results to submit this form to FPR.CannabisAdministration@Illinois.gov. It is the responsibility of each applicant to determine whether it must submit this form after the Department posts the lottery results. The Department will not answer any questions as to whether an applicant is obligated to complete this form. Applicants bear the responsibility of knowing who their principal officers are and whether their principal officers may be associated with other applicants. Applicants that need to abandon multiple opportunities for a Conditional License, must do so using a separate Abandonment Form for each opportunity abandoned.

If an applicant has a principal officer that exceeds the license limits detailed above, can the applicant withdraw a principal officer to avoid needing to abandon a Conditional License?

No. Pursuant to Sections 15-35(b)(4) and 15-35.10(b)(4) of the Act and 68 Ill. Adm. Code 1291.50(a)(2), any applicant that removes a principal officer after the completion of the scoring process period will not be eligible to receive a Conditional License.
