- I. As set forth in the Nurse Practice Act 225 ILCS 65/et seq (“Act”), nurses are required to report the following:
- A. An adverse final action taken against by any of the following entities (adverse final actions can include, but are not limited to, termination from employment, discipline against a license, a court judgment, etc.):
 - 1. Another licensing jurisdiction (any other U.S. state or territory, or any foreign country)
 - 2. Any peer review body
 - 3. Any healthcare institution
 - 4. Any professional nursing society or association
 - 5. Another governmental agency (state or federal)
 - 6. Any law enforcement agency; or
 - 7. Any court, including a judgment resulting from a nursing liability claim related to conduct which would constitute grounds for discipline as defined in Section 70-5(b) of the Nurse Practice Act.
 - B. Surrender of a license or authorization to practice in another state or jurisdiction.
 - C. Surrender of a membership on nursing staff or in any nursing or professional association or society when the following conditions exist:
 - 1. The licensee is under disciplinary investigation by those authorities or bodies AND
 - 2. The investigation is related to conduct that would constitute grounds for discipline as defined in Section 70-5(b) of the Nurse Practice Act.
- II. Nurses may also report addiction or chemical dependence, drug diversion, and/or testing positive for illicit or illegal drugs. If you self-report your addiction or chemical dependence, drug diversion, or positive drug test to the Department, you may be eligible for a Care, Counseling, & Treatment Agreement, which is not a disciplinary action. Please visit the Department’s FAQs for Nurses: Substance Abuse Issues, for more information.
- III. Email complete signed forms to FPR.DPREAU@illinois.gov within sixty (60) days.

Failure to submit any required report may result in disciplinary action under the Act. Please review the Department’s FAQs at www.idfpr.com or call the Department at 1-888-473-4858 for more information.
