General Information

Instructions:

1. To apply for licensure of a Public Accounting firm under the provisions of the Illinois Public Accounting Act, follow all steps as they are indicated below. Please complete the application in its entirety to avoid any unnecessary delays in the processing of your application.
2. If the firm is a business corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership or a professional service corporation, please ensure the firm's legal business name entered in the registration page of the application matches the legal business name as filed with the Illinois Secretary of State.
3. Accounting firm registration fees are $120.00. Fees are not refundable.
4. The application which you submit is valid for three years from the date of receipt.

Important Information:

1. A majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms of financial interests and voting rights of all partners, officers, shareholders, members, or managers belongs to persons currently licensed in some state, and the partners, officers, shareholders, members, or managers whose principal place of business is in Illinois and who practice public accounting in Illinois, as defined in Section 8 of the Illinois Public Accounting Act, hold a valid license issued by Illinois.
2. The accounting firm may have any of the following ownership structures:
 - Business Corporation (Foreign or Domestic)
 - Limited Liability Company (Foreign or Domestic)
 - Limited Liability Partnership or Limited Partnership (Foreign or Domestic)
 - Professional Services Corporation (Foreign or Domestic)
 - General Partnership
 - Sole Proprietor
3. Sole Proprietors: Only sole proprietorships in which others take part in the conduct of business (e.g. "and Company", "and Associates") are required to obtain an Illinois firm license.
4. Assumed Names: Please note that the Illinois Assumed Name Act requires sole proprietorships and general partnerships to register with their local county clerk's office if the firm name is different from the owner(s) full legal name(s). Corporations, LLCs, and LLPs may register an assumed name as part of their required business filings with the Illinois Secretary of State.
